

Webster County May 2012

REPORT FROM FOOD SERVICE DIRECTOR SHANE BOSAW

Mr. Bosaw reported to the Board, as requested, on projections to reach full paid lunch equity requirements. He explained that he had not been able to find the deadline date the Federal Government had set for all School Food Authorities to meet full equity, but it was based on a five-year time limit. Mr. Bosaw told the Board in order to reach full equity by FY 2013, the price per meal would need to be $2.57, while the price for the 2012-13 school year is set for $1.90. He said in order to reach full equity by 2018, we would have to have an annual increase of ten cents per meal, and if the price was increased annually by 15 cents, then equity would be reached by 2016. This information was a report only and required no action from the Board.

Comment [BNB1]: Increases are capped at 10 cents per year
