

RESOLUTION REGARDING THE DEATH OF ERIN NICOLE ADAMS

WHEREAS, the Fayette County Public Schools family, with very deep regret, learned of the passing of Erin Nicole Adams, a 7-year-old rising second-grader at Garden Springs Elementary School who also attended Breckinridge and Harrison Elementary Schools, and

WHEREAS, Erin bounced through life, with a spring in her step that matched the ringlets in her hair as she danced through the halls of school making friends easily, giving hugs freely and charming everyone she met, and

WHEREAS, with a sparkle that came from within, Erin was joy personified, and with her beautiful, bright eyes and beaming, perpetual grin she brought sunshine into every room she entered, and

WHEREAS, Erin never met a stranger and easily made connections with classmates and adults alike, sharing a love of Franklin books with a seatmate, cajoling bubble gum from her principal, and becoming the unofficial classroom greeter as she leapt to greet everyone who entered the room, and

WHEREAS, kind and giving, Erin knew what people needed before people knew they needed it, and responded instantly by hopping out of her seat to retrieve something her teacher had dropped or to help a classmate struggling with an assignment, and

WHEREAS, Erin loved people and brought happiness to others simply by being herself, taking special pride in her role as a big sister and making others laugh by telling silly stories about her family, and

WHEREAS, a girly girl who loved ruffles and flip flops and all things pink, Erin worked very hard to learn how to tie her shoes and then spent the rest of the year teaching all her friends how to tie their shoes too, and

WHEREAS, compassionate and tender-hearted, Erin was a social butterfly who could tell when someone was having a bad day and find a way to cheer them up, and

WHEREAS, Erin was a bright student and a good reader who was enthusiastic about learning, and her classmates and teacher will fondly recall the times they spent giggling at her antics in "Minute to Win It" games and cherish the pictures of hearts with silly faces that she drew for them on "Doodle Day" Thursdays.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the members of the Fayette County Board of Education hereby express their profound feeling of loss and wish to express their deep sympathy to Erin's family.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this resolution be spread on the official minutes of the Board of Education and that a copy thereof be sent to the family of Erin Nicole Adams.
