Get iPad. Get started learning.

Discover how iPad can be used for teaching, learning, and leading.

Teachers and administrators want to know how to transform learning in their schools with iPad. Let the Apple Professional Development experts teach you how to use the iPad for teaching and learning—and as a tool for daily school operations and management. Master basic navigation, explore key accessibility features, browse new apps, plus see how to manage workflow, create content, and stay in sync.

Details

• One or two days of Apple Professional Development at your site (6 hours per day).
• Maximum number of participants: 20
• Pricing: One day $2900; Two days (consecutive) $4500
• Can be combined with the purchase of iPad devices
• Choose two modules (one day workshop) or four modules (two day workshop)
  - iPad Basics - Navigation, App Store, iBooks, syncing, and iTunes U resources for learning
  - Accessibility Features - Hearing, vision, struggling readers
  - Apps for Teachers - Curriculum apps and mobile content
  - Apps for Administrators - Administrative apps and mobile content
  - Podcast - Creating and sharing mobile content (requires iLife on Mac)
  - Teacher Productivity - Creating a document, spreadsheet, and presentation (requires iWork apps)
  - Administrator Productivity - Creating a document, spreadsheet, and presentation (requires iWork apps)

For more information call your Apple education representative at 1-800-800-2775.