School	South Todd Elem
Activity Fund	Book Fair
Sponsor	Mern Baugh
Date Submitted	8/13/12

Purpose of fund-raising activity:
(What are you doing to raise funds?):

The purpose of the book fair is to allow students an opportunity to view, read, select, & purchase books. Some of our students never go to a book store. The profit goes to fund items, books, & activities that would not be possible otherwise. Past funding provided author visits, books, digital cameras, reading promotional, special projects, books, resources & supplies for the school library.

Beneficiary of fund-raising activity:
(Who will receive the benefit of the funds and what are you buying with them?)

The entire school & community benefits from the book fair. The library and book fair is kept open after school so parents can visit with their child. Students directly benefit from the book fair through having a richer educational experience provided from the funds.

Activity Fund	Time for Kids
Sponsor	Merri Baugh
Date Submitted	8-13-12

Purpose of fund-raising activity:
(What are you doing to raise funds?):

The purpose of the Time for Kids fundraiser is to provide students with copies of the Time for Kids magazine. Students take home address booklets. They complete 7 addresses & bring the booklet back to school for a prize. The postcard is mailed, but no purchase is required. School gets money based on cards completed & returned.

Beneficiary of fund-raising activity:
(Who will receive the benefit of the funds and what are you buying with them?)

All students, teachers, and even parents benefit from this program. There is no purchase or money involved in the magazine card program. The number of cards returned determines the number of subscriptions. Essentially it is a free way for students to receive TFK with minimal effort.
