Information for Parents

Parent Information About Alcohol, Tobacco, Other Drugs, and Violence

As a parent, you know there are risks out there that you never experienced as a young person, and you're probably doing your share of worrying about your child. Alcohol, illegal drugs, internet risks, prescription drugs, sexual risks -- our children are encountering these and more challenges. The good news is that there are more and more resources to assist you, a parent, with the issues your child faces. This website is one such resource. We have divided the site into two main sections: Alcohol, Tobacco, and Other Drugs; and Violence. Each section is further divided into subsections. Additionally, we have included Jefferson County Public Schools (JCPS) Policies under each section.

The staff of the JCPS Safe and Drug Free Schools Office hopes you will find this website informative and helpful. Your feedback is welcome and encouraged. For more information or to comment on the Web site, go to our Contact Us page.

JCPS Policies

Zero Tolerance

The JCPS District insists that its schools be safe and free of drugs. The district follows the guidelines in the Gun-Free Schools Act of
