Addington Field
Elizabethtown Regional Airport

And the benefits, unlimited.

New, regional jet airline service for Elizabethtown, Ft. Knox and Central Kentucky means one thing.
Opportunities.

New, regional jet service gives our communities a powerful new economic development tool. Improving local area business operations and attracting new business to the region, helps us to strengthen our economy and provide opportunities for generations to come.

It also means real convenience.

Attracting regional carriers to EKX, will provide new choices for business, military and leisure travelers alike.

- Shorter driving times.
- Competitive fares.
- More choices.

And we promise a hassle-free experience with free, well-lit, secure parking right at the terminal door. And shorter check-in times and security clearances.
