On February 17, 2009, the President signed the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) to create jobs in the short turn and make needed investments for the long term. In an April 1, 2009 letter to Governors, Secretary Duncan stated, "The ARRA lays a foundation to reform America's schools, invest in the proven solutions to help our students succeed, and cultivate a new culture of accountability for teaching and learning."

Four principles guide the distribution and use of the ARRA funds:

- Spend funds quickly to save and create jobs
- Improve student achievement through school improvement and reform
- Ensure transparency, reporting and accountability
- Invest one-time ARRA funds thoughtfully to minimize the "funding cliff"

District must adhere to the ARRA Jobs reporting and Vendor reporting requirement if applicable.
All funds must be encumbered or spent by June 30, 2014 and drawn down by August 8, 2014.
