In the event of termination for default, the Board may secure the required services from another contractor. If the cost to the Board exceeds the cost of obtaining the Services under this Contract, Contractor shall pay the additional cost. The rights and remedies of the Board provided in this Article shall not be exclusive and are in addition to any other rights and remedies provided by law or under this Contract.

ARTICLE XI Disputes

Any differences or disagreements arising between the Parties concerning the rights or liabilities under this Contract, or any modifying instrument entered into under Article VIII of this Contract, shall be resolved through the procedures set out in the Regulations.

Agreement Between Jeffersontown Police
and
Jefferson County Board of Education for
The School Resource Officer Program

This agreement made and entered into this 14th day of February, 2012, by and between Jefferson County Board of Education and Jeffersontown Police.

The S.R.O. is a community policing approach practiced in a school environment. The school is the police officer's beat and community. The exclusive focus on the physical and social territory of the school is an important aspect of the S.R.O. concept. Unlike police officers who respond to school problems as a result of a 911 call by school personnel, the S.R.O. knows the school's physical layout and is aware of who belongs on school property and who does not. The S.R.O. wears the police uniform and weapon while on duty in the school.

GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

- 1. Maintain a safe and secure environment on campus, which will be conducive to learning.
- 2. Establish a positive working relationship in a cooperative effort to prevent juvenile delinquency and assist in student development.
- 3. Promote positive attitudes regarding the police role in society and to inform students of their rights and responsibilities as lawful citizens.

The Jeffersontown Police in collaboration with Jefferson County Board of Education shall select the School Resource Officers and assign each to selected schools.

Jefferson County Board of Education agrees to share information, which will ensure the success of the program within the confines of the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act. (FERPA)

School Resource Officers shall remain employees of the Jeffersontown Police and shall not be employees of the Jefferson County Board of Education.

After conferencing with the principal, the S.R.O. shall take law enforcement action against intruders and unwanted guests who appear on school property.

The S.R.O. shall conduct investigations of crimes, which occur at their assigned schools and use other resources if needed for follow-up investigations.

The S.R.O. will turn in a weekly summation report to the chief of police and the school principal at the end of every week.

The effectiveness of the program will be delineated in a scheduled process evaluation meeting between the principal of the school and the Jeffersontown Chief of Police. The cumulative yearly evaluation meeting will take place at the close of each school year involving the Chief of Police and the Executive Director of Student Relations and Safety, Jefferson County Board of Education.

The S.R.O. shall not be used as a school disciplinarian. If the principal believes an incident is a violation of the law, they may contact the S.R.O. to see if law enforcement action is needed.

The S.R.O. cannot be present when a principal conducts an administrative search unless the principal or school personnel fear for their safety.

The S.R.O. cannot enforce school rules and policies.

The S.R.O. shall follow the law and Jeffersontown Police standard operating procedures when confiscating drugs from students on school property.

The S.R.O. shall follow the guidelines of the KRS and KAR, and School Board Policy in regards to investigations, interviews and searches relating to juveniles.

School Resource Officers have three main functions: law enforcement officer, law-related educator and advisor. First as law enforcement officer, the S.R.O. maintains a safe and secure school environment in which "...teachers feel safe to teach and students feel safe to learn". Second, as law-related educator, the S.R.O. conducts classroom presentations pertaining to law related topics, as in doing so, informs student and promotes positive attitudes regarding the role of police in society. Last, the S.R.O. acts as an advisor to students, parents, teachers, and staff on issues related to law enforcement, substance abuse, delinquency, violence, and other law related topics. The S.R.O. may talk with students, parents, teachers and staff about their problems and help them find possible solutions. When necessary, the S.R.O. may make referrals to counselors or appropriate social service agencies for additional assistance.

One of the most effective ways an S.R.O. can accomplish these goals is to be a positive role model. Students learn from every interaction they have with an S.R.O. It is essential for an S.R.O. to be a positive role model who endorses high moral standards, uses good judgment and discretion, is consistent and fair, respects all students, and displays a sincere concern for the school community. School Resource Officers must maintain a professional appearance; be visible, accessible, and willing to talk to students; attend and participate in school activities; interact positively with students and the community, taking their concerns seriously, and maintain a positive relationship with the faculty and administrators.
