Ludlow’s Business Engagement Tour

On January 29th, we hosted the first Ludlow Business Engagement Tour. We collaborated with the Northern Kentucky Chamber of Commerce and the Prichard Committee for Academic Excellence to hold this event. Nearly 40 individuals attended the event, representing a variety of businesses, colleges, organizations, and the Ludlow community.

What Took Place?

- ❖ The attendees watched the district’s video “Ludlow is Our Home”.
- ❖ Mr. Borchers highlighted various aspects and programs within our district.
- ❖ Everyone toured the campus and visited a few classrooms.
- ❖ Attendees returned to the auditorium and listened to several students talk about what makes Ludlow special to them.
- ❖ Each person was given a toolkit, which included a list of ways they support Ludlow Independent Schools through their time, talent, or treasure. Guests were asked to complete a commitment form and return it before leaving.

The students who spoke at the event included:

Willow Kennedy (2), Brandon Litton (2), Carson Smith (5), Dakota Hibbard (6), Jordan Scheid (10), Kendall Trent (10), Cameron Hart (11), Chelsea Egan (11), and Jordan Cowles (11).

The event was an extremely positive one. Guests were impressed with our programs and students. A comment repeated to Mr. Borchers through the morning was that Ludlow is the “hidden gem of Northern Kentucky.”

We were pleased with the response on the commitment forms, and will be following up with those individuals.
