RESOLUTION BY KECSAC OF
STATE AGENCY CHILDREN INTERAGENCY AGREEMENT between the
JEFFERSON COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION and FATHER MALONEY'S BOYS HAVEN, INC.

This Interagency Agreement ("Agreement") by and between the Jefferson County Board of Education doing business as the Jefferson County Public Schools ("JCPS") and FATHER MALONEY'S BOYS HAVEN, INC. d/b/a Boys and Girls Haven ("BOYS AND GIRLS HAVEN") is entered into through a resolution by the Kentucky Educational Collaborative for State Agency Children ("KECSAC") on the date indicated on the signature page and is effective from this date thru June 30, 2014.

The resolution of this agreement is being coordinated by KECSAC as outlined in 505 KAR 1:080 which grants regulatory authority to KECSAC to resolve any conflict that arises between the local agencies regarding the development or fulfillment of the interagency agreement. Both parties involved in the development of the agreement have requested KECSAC to resolve the issue and implement an agreement for the current fiscal year. This agreement is binding as set forth in the KECSAC governing regulations.

RECITALS

The Kentucky General Assembly has enacted legislation that defines State Agency Children ("SAC"), establishes the Kentucky Educational Collaborative for State Agency Children ("KECSAC"), and defines the role of school districts in the provision of educational services to SAC. See KRS 158.135 and 605.110 (the "Legislation").

The Department of Juvenile Justice in the Kentucky Justice and Public Safety Cabinet has promulgated regulations pursuant to the Legislation that establishes requirements governing KECSAC. See 505 KAR 1:080 (the "Regulations").

Pursuant to the Legislation, BOYS AND GIRLS HAVEN and the Department for Community Based Services in the Kentucky Cabinet for Health and Family Services have entered into a Private Child Care Agreement (the "PCCA") under which the BOYS AND GIRLS HAVEN has contracted with the Commonwealth of Kentucky to provide residential services to SAC at the BOYS AND GIRLS HAVEN facilities in Jefferson County for the period from July 1, 2012 to June 30, 2014. These residential services are outlined in the PCCA and include, among other requirements, providing adequate food, shelter, clothing, incidental expenses, affection, training, recreation, education, services that are consistent with their ethnic and cultural background, and opportunities for religious, spiritual, or ethical development in the faith of the child's choice, if any.

Pursuant to the Regulations, KECSAC and JCPS have entered into a Memorandum of Agreement dated as of July 1, 2013 (the "KECSAC MOA") which forms the basis for the operation and distribution of SAC funds for the delivery of educational services by JCPS to SAC residing in Jefferson County during the state Fiscal Year 2014 (July 1, 2013-June 30, 2014).

The Regulations and the KECSAC MOA provide that JCPS shall develop an interagency agreement, including program goals and objectives, between JCPS and each provider of residential services to SAC in Jefferson County regarding their mutual responsibility for education and care of SAC.

This Agreement is intended by JCPS and the BOYS AND GIRLS HAVEN to form the basis for a cooperative relationship between the BOYS AND GIRLS HAVEN as providers of residential services to SAC in Jefferson County and JCPS as the agency responsible for the provision of educational services to the SAC residing within Jefferson County at the BOYS AND GIRLS HAVEN facility.

It is the mutual goal and intention of BOYS AND GIRLS HAVEN and JCPS to maintain the needs of each child or youth residing at the BOYS AND GIRLS HAVEN facility as the priority in fulfilling this Agreement. This Agreement is intended to foster the provision of coordinated and high quality educational and residential services to the SAC residing at BOYS AND GIRLS HAVEN. It is not meant as a way to inhibit either JCPS or BOYS AND GIRLS HAVEN in meeting their respective goals, but rather to foster a collaborative approach to services on the part of both JCPS and BOYS AND GIRLS HAVEN. The content of this Agreement is intended to be mutually beneficial to both parties while meeting the educational needs of SAC.

Pursuant to Regulations, if a conflict arises between the local agencies (in this case BOYS AND GIRLS HAVEN and JCPS) regarding the development or fulfillment of the interagency agreement by either party, it shall be RESOLVED by KECSAC. In a letter dated December 17, 2013, JCPS notified KECSAC that they have "concluded that the differences between JCPS and the providers are not likely to be resolved by the parties without the assistance of KECSAC." Furthermore, in a letter dated January 3, 2014, Mr. Kent Wicker, Esq. acting on behalf of the Private Child Care Agencies in Jefferson County, contacted KECSAC and noted, "We have been unable to make appreciable progress in recent months in forming an agreement which meets the obligations JCPS owes to our children under federal and state law." As a result of these notices, KECSAC is obligated and authorized by 505 KAR 1:080 to resolve the issue and implement an Interagency Agreement that is mutually beneficial while meeting the educational needs of SAC in Jefferson County.

Pursuant to Regulations, if a dispute arises between KECSAC and a local school district that cannot be resolved by the parties, the dispute shall be submitted, for resolution, to the interagency advisory group by written request of either party. The request shall identify in detail the issue in dispute. The interagency advisory group shall schedule a meeting with the parties, during which each party shall explain its position. The interagency advisory group shall render a written report and recommendation to the commissioner of the department responsible for the program in dispute within fifteen (15) days of the meeting. The commissioner shall render a written decision resolving the dispute within fifteen (15) days of receiving the recommendation from the interagency advisory group.

The Agreement will not be construed to constitute either party as an agent, partner or joint venture of the other party; to authorize or empower either party to assume or create any obligation or responsibility, expressed or implied, on behalf of the other party; or to authorize or empower either party to bind in any manner or make any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or commitment on behalf of the other party.
- E. Entire Agreement; Amendment; Waiver. This Agreement contains and sets forth the entire understanding and agreement between the parties hereto, as it related to the subject matter of this Agreement. This Agreement supersedes all existing agreements between them concerning that subject matter, and may be modified or amended only by a written instrument signed by each party. Either party to this Agreement may in writing [i] extend the time for the performance of any obligations of any other party; [ii] waive performance of any obligations by any other party; and [iii] waive the fulfillment of any condition that is precedent to the performance by the party of any of its obligations under this Agreement. No such waiver will be deemed to be continuing or to apply to any other instance or to constitute the waiver of any other term or condition of this Agreement in that or any other instance. The failure of a party to insist upon strict compliance with any provision of this Agreement on one or more occasions will not be considered a waiver and will not prevent that party from insisting upon strict compliance with that provision or any other provision of this Agreement.
- F. Third Party Rights. This Agreement does not create, and will not be construed as creating, any rights enforceable by any person not a party to this Agreement.

- G. Governing Law. This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Kentucky, without giving effect to its conflict of laws rules.
- H. Severability. The invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement will not affect the validity, legality, or enforceability of the remaining provisions. If any provision of this Agreement is inapplicable to any person or circumstance, it will nevertheless remain applicable to all other persons and circumstances.
- I. Expenses. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, each party to this Agreement will pay all costs, fees and expenses that the party may incur in connection with the negotiation, execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement.
- J. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, any SAC who resides in BOYS AND GIRLS HAVEN's residential facility but attends classes in any JCPS school building will be subject to and will abide by all JCPS policies and procedures applicable to all other students who attend classes in such building.
- K. Pursuant to Regulations, if a conflict arises between the local agencies regarding the development or fulfillment of the interagency agreement by either party, it shall be RESOLVED by KECSAC. In a letter dated December 17, 2013, JCPS notified KECSAC that they have "concluded that the differences between JCPS and the providers are not likely to be resolved by the parties without the assistance of KECSAC." Furthermore, in a letter dated January 3, 2014, Mr. Kent Wicker, Esq. acting on behalf of the Private Child Care Agencies in Jefferson County, contacted KECSAC and noted, "We have been unable to make appreciable progress in recent months in forming an agreement which meets the obligations JCPS owes to our children under federal and state law." As a result of these notices from both parties, KECSAC is obligated and authorized by 505 KAR 1:080 to resolve the issue. As a result of both parties failure to develop a valid, legal and enforceable interagency agreement, they have forfeited their rights and responsibilities for development of the interagency agreement voluntarily to KECSAC for resolution. This Agreement is the result of that resolution and is legal and enforceable.

4. Signatures.

- A. Each individual signing this Agreement represents that he or she has the authority to act on behalf of his or her agency. Referral to KECSAC for resolution hereby negates the approval of the governing body of his or her agency. Further, should either party fail to sign this Agreement, it does not invalidate, make illegal or make unenforceable the Agreement.
- B. Commitment to the provisions in this Agreement signifies each agency's efforts toward a professional collaboration for the provision of quality residential and educational services to each school age child for which both JCPS and BOYS AND GIRLS HAVEN have a shared responsibility.
- C. Signatures below indicate representatives from both JCPS and BOYS AND GIRLS HAVEN have received a copy of the resolution by KECSAC of the Interagency Agreement between said agencies.
