Dear Principal Franke:

On behalf of the Kentucky Board of Education and Kentucky Department of Education, congratulations on your school's designation as a High-Progress School under the 2012-13 Unbridled Learning Assessment and Accountability System.

A high-progressing school is one that is in the top 10 percentile of improvement among similar schools in the state. The headway you made is an indication that the efforts of teachers, administrators, students and parents are paying off.

Enclosed is a certificate recognizing your improvement as a High-Progress School. We hope you will display it proudly as a reminder of your progress and as a catalyst for continued improvement.

Again, congratulations on your outstanding effort. Southgate Public School is a model of positive change for other schools in Kentucky. Keep up the good work.

Sincerely,

Terry Holliday, Ph.D.
Kentucky Education Commissioner
