Scurry Up and Buy More Books Fundraiser. Students will bring money in to help their teacher's hamster scurry up the hamster trail.

Description of Program This fundraiser will last for one week: April 14 – 18, which coincides with National Library Week. The library will also be giving out prizes each day for students who wear the color of the day which represents our week's motto, "Reading Colors Our World". Money raised will go to the library for the purchasing of new books, to help pay for the end of the year celebration for Reading Counts Met Goals, and prizes for Reading Counts. Any class raising $100+ for the library will earn a popcorn and juice party in May after the testing window.
