DreamFest at NKU

Gifted & Talented Teacher Jane Paulin was the Co-Chair of DreamFest, which is a conference for gifted students in Northern Kentucky. It was held at NKU on March 12th. Over 50 Ludlow students attended the conference.

Students heard from various speakers and attended breakout sessions on topics of their choice. All had the same message: Dream Big. Students were encouraged to see how every problem has multiple solutions, and how their interests and hobbies can connect to their current school work as well as a future career.
