Status Update on School Districts in State Assistance

Applicable Statute or Regulation:

KRS 158.780, KRS 158.785 and 703 KAR 3:205

History/Background:

Robertson County School District

On October 8, 2013, the Kentucky Board of Education (KBE) approved Robertson County as being designated a state-assisted school district, with regular status updates to follow. Jim Hamm has been assigned from the Office of Next Generation Schools and Districts to act as the State Assistance Monitor for Robertson County. Superintendent Charles Brown retired in December 2013 and Interim Superintendent Patti Price started in January 2014.

An updated 30/60/90 day plan for Robertson County is attached.

Fleming County School District

On December 4, 2013, the KBE approved Fleming County as being designated a state-assisted school district, with regular status updates to follow. Jim Hamm has been assigned to act as the State Assistance Monitor for Fleming County.

An updated 30/60/90 day plan for Fleming County is attached.

KDE continues to work with both districts to address outstanding areas of concern.
