Subject: DuPont Pioneer Giving Application

Dear Mrs. O'Nan:

Thank you for your interest in the DuPont Pioneer Giving Program. We appreciate the significance of the Niagara Elementary School program and commend your organization for its hard work and dedication.

We review each application carefully and select only those which align closely with our giving policy. After a review of your application, we are pleased to tell you the When Hands are Moving, Minds are Growing is approved for funding in the amount of $5,000. We hope these funds are instrumental to the success of your project and will support the ongoing sustainability of your mission.

A check will be mailed to the Niagara Elementary School via the US Postal service in two to three weeks. In order to ensure the funds are applied to the correct account, please notify any respective personnel in your accounts receivable department of this notice, because this will be on the only correspondence we provide concerning the award prior to delivery.

Finally, please contact Rebekah Peck at (740) 657-6130 when the check is received to arrange local publicity that is deemed appropriate.

We wish you every success in the future,

DuPont Pioneer
