Status Update on School Districts in State Assistance

Applicable Statute or Regulation:

KRS 158.780, KRS 158.785 and 703 KAR 3:205

History/Background:

Robertson County School District (Robertson)

On October 8, 2013, the Kentucky Board of Education (KBE) approved Robertson as being designated as a state-assisted school district, with regular status updates to follow. Jim Hamm has been assigned from the Office of Next Generation Schools and Districts to act as the State Assistance Monitor for Robertson. Interim Superintendent Patti Price started in January 2014.

- An updated 30/60/90 day plan for Robertson is attached.

Fleming County School District (Fleming)

On December 4, 2013, the KBE approved Fleming as being designated as a state-assisted school district, with regular status updates to follow. Jim Hamm has been assigned to act as the State Assistance Monitor for Fleming.

- An updated 30/60/90 day plan for Fleming is attached.

KDE continues to work with both districts to address outstanding areas of concern and will provide the state board with more a detailed update at the June board meeting.
