Dear Dr. Richey,

The History Club at South Middle School is requesting your permission to take 2 students to Washington, D.C. on June 14th – 19th to attend the National History Day competition. We have 2 students that have advanced from the state competition that will be competing at the national level. This is such an honor for the students, South Middle School, and the Henderson County School System. There will be two chaperones employed by Henderson County Schools and three parents attending this trip.

Thank You,

Merrill Punke
