Dear Tim:

Our Board of Trustees met in June and your proposal was not selected for funding this year. Members of the Board asked me to convey to you that your work is important and they wish you success in the future. This year the foundation simply received many more requests than funds available to support the many worthy requests.

If you wish to apply again next year, please note that our deadline is March 2, 2015. Please refer to our website for new information that may be required in the application process.
(www.steele-reese.org) Steele-Reese will continue to accept applications by our online system only for the 2015 grant year, and information about the current application form will be posted to our web site no later than December 1, 2014.

Thank you for your application and I hope you'll be successful in securing resources to support your work.

Sincerely,

Judy K. Owens
