S. citizens. Neither shall the district: a. Require students or parents to disclose or document their immigration status. b. Make inquiries of students or parents which may expose their undocumented status. c. Require social security numbers of all students, as it may expose the undocumented status of students or parents Pyler v. Doe, 457 U.S. 202, 1982).
Respond (/assist/s/diagnostic/answers/next?surveyId=8860582&questionId=10894)	Section 1304(b)(3) of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act states that the Kentucky Department of Education must promote interstate and intrastate coordination of migrant education services, including the transfer of pertinent school records, for migratory children. School districts must meet privacy requirements of FERPA as listed in General Assurances No. 27. In carrying out this requirement, the signed Certificate of Eligibility (COE), by the migrant child's parent or legal guardian will serve as a consensual written permission to share personally identifiable information from their migrant record with local educational agencies and migrant regional service centers and to transfer such information to appropriate education officials in other states having migrant programs. Regional migrant service centers will have oversight of district programs in their region. a) Districts and regional offices agree to comply with any and all requests for data, documentation, etc. made by the KDE in the manner in which it is requested (hard copy, electronic, etc.) within the timeline requested. b) Districts will comply with the written requirements of the regional and state migrant regional service centers to ensure the accuracy of data and the transfer of migrant student records. Districts or public universities serving as migrant regional service centers will maintain a written record (Certificate of Eligibility) of the basis on which each child was determined to be eligible.

Each district should employ a recruiter and advocate ensuring the identification and recruitment of all eligible migrant children. It is highly recommended that these positions be full-time and bilingual.
