Board Report

- ACT Pep Rally was held on 03-02-2015
- ACT Exam was held on March 3rd. Students were served a healthy breakfast prior to the exam. We held an in school parade where every student cheered them on as they walked the building. After the exam, juniors were taken to Buona Vita for pizza.
- We have been holding school leadership team meetings. In those meetings we discuss PBIS, school policies, graduation, and our school culture. We will work diligently to improve in all those areas.
- We held a PD on the Read180 program where we did a gains analysis. We will be looking to screen all 6th grade students at the end of this year using the SRI from Read180. This instrument will help us to better place incoming 7th grade students so we can meet their individual needs.
- We are inching closer to making our Gateway Technical and Community College partnership a reality. We have many students interested in this opportunity.
- DMS/DHS continues to hold Student Assistance Team (SAT) meetings where we are trying to meet the individual needs of our at risk population.
- On Friday March 13, the middle school held an incentive field trip to Sports of All Sorts. This trip rewarded good behavior and academics.
- DMS will be hosting a parent night for scheduling on April 21st. At that time students and parents will be introduced to teachers and the scheduling process.
- DHS will be hosting a parent night for scheduling on April 28th. We will follow the same format.
- On March 12th, juniors took a field trip to Xavier and Cincinnati State University.
- The annual Arts Fair/Band Concert was held March 19th.
- KOSSA test was held on March 19th. We hope that exam will lead to more career readiness.
- The Work Keys test was held on March 23rd. We hope that exam will lead to more career readiness.
- The H.S. honor roll lunch was held on March 23rd.
- The M.S. honor roll lunch was held on March 25th.
