Review Item:

Status Update on School Districts in State Assistance (Fleming, Robertson and Meniffee Counties)

Applicable Statute or Regulation:

KRS 158.780, KRS 158.785 and 703 KAR 3:205

History/Background:

The Fleming County School District (Fleming) and the Robertson County School District (Robertson) have been designated for state assistance by the Kentucky Board of Education (KBE) for more than a year. Both districts have new leadership at the superintendent level since state assistance started.

In addition, at the December 2014 board meeting, the Meniffee County School District (Meniffee) was designated for state assistance by the KBE.

Fleming County School District

The work in Fleming County is ongoing and there are no significant issues of concern to report since the December 2014 update. The Fleming County revised ongoing 30/60/90-day plan is attached.

Robertson County School District

The work in Robertson County is ongoing and there are several significant issues of concerns since the last update, which are currently being addressed. A more detailed update will be provided at the February board meeting. The Robertson County revised ongoing 30/60/90-day plan is attached.

Meniffee County School District

KDE is in the process of deploying appropriate resources and working with local district leadership to develop corrective action plans to address deficiencies identified in the management audit. Detailed 30/60/90-day plans should be in place by April 2015.
