HCHS to Compete at STAR Events: Earn Second Place in State

(Henderson, KY)—UPDATE: Brianna Scott and Julie Brack placed second in the state and each student was awarded $6,000 in scholarships. Jessiah Dixon was chosen to serve on the nominating committee to select officers for the state association. Along with the competition each student participated in workshops that promote Leadership.

PREVIOUS: Family Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) Culinary Arts team will be competing at the STAR Events in Louisville, Kentucky, on Monday, March 30, 2015.

Jessiah Dixon will be competing in Food Innovations, Julie Brack along with Brianna Scott will compete in the Culinary Occupational Competition. Ginny Johnson, FCCLA Advisor, will chaperone the young ladies and the group will be attending the State Meeting as well.

STAR Events (Students Taking Action with Recognition) recognize members for proficiency and achievement in chapter and individual projects, leadership skills, and career preparation. STAR Events offer individual skill development and application of learning through the following activities:

- Cooperative — teams work to accomplish specific goals
- Individualized — members work alone to accomplish specific goals
- Competitive — individual or team performance measured by an established set of criteria

For more information, contact Ginny Johnson, FACS Teacher at Henderson County High School at 270-831-8800 or via email at virginia.johnson@henderson.kyschools.us.
