PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

- The May 19 PD Day went really well. The presenters did a very nice job and we have had a lot of really positive feedback regarding the day. One of the responses to the follow up survey is below.

Overall, I would recommend this type of professional learning on our PD Days.

Answer Options	Strongly Agree	Agree	Neutral	Disagree	Strongly Disagree	Rating Average	Response Count

Other Comments regarding our PD day:

- “The Poverty session was the most important. Understanding our students is key to helping them GROW.”
- “The talk from Dr. Z about the brain physically changing when there is chronic or acute stress was very eye opening. I know that the kids are not going to change so we have to change the way we teach. I also cannot wait to implement the QFT into my teaching.”
- “I loved ALL of the conversation surrounding teaching students in poverty and I greatly look forward to getting my hands on the Jensen book.”
- Principals have the plans for the teacher work days in June finalized.
- We are beginning to plan for the August PD days prior to the school year starting. The administrators will be presenting on Student Growth Goals for one of the sessions.

ASSESSMENT

- KPREP testing has been completed and the testing materials have been shipped!
- End of Course Assessments have been completed on the computer and the paper/pencil materials have been shipped.
- AP testing is complete and the materials have been shipped.

CURRICULUM/INSTRUCTION

- A “Draft” copy of the 2015-2016 Certified Evaluation Plan has been submitted to Jenny Ray and you have a copy.
