

Updated July 21, 2015

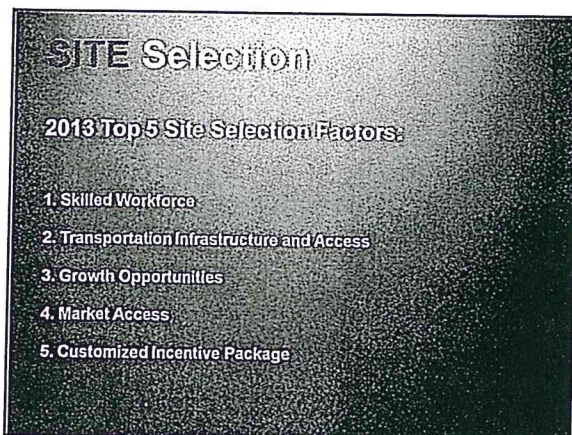

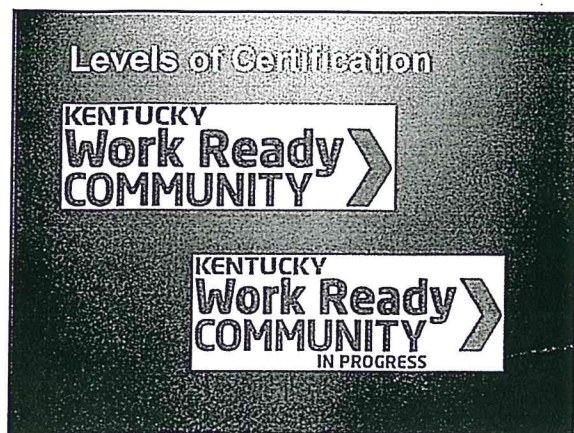

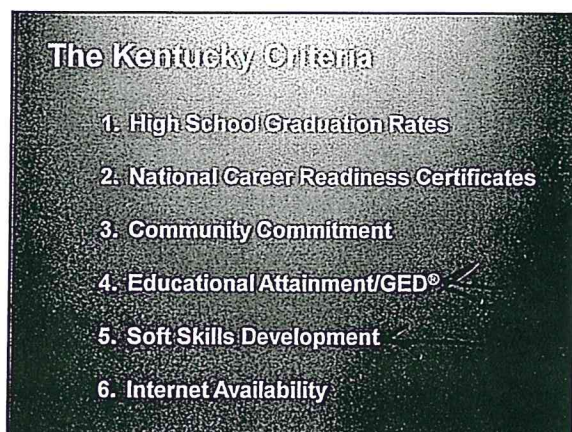

Spencer 1 of only 5
Counties not Classified
as "Work Ready" Communities.

Certification Agency.
Governor's Primary Voice for Workforce & Economic Development.

ACT data

Post-Secondary Measure

Attendance, Attire, Communication, Punctual

Spencer Co.
High School Graduation Rate	95.4%
Educational Attainment	28.4%
NCRC	1.29%
Internet Availability	100%

National Career Readiness Certificate (Brandy Scott) must be 9%

Post Secondary Institution;
Campbellsville University?

Certification Benefits

1. Demonstrates collaboration within the community to address workforce and education issues
2. Provide existing employers with a qualified applicant pool
3. Economic Development Tool
 - A. Existing Business
 - B. Expansions
 - C. New Business

The Process

1. Organize locally
2. Submit Letter of Intent
3. Prepare application
4. Panel review
5. County presentation
6. Recommendation
7. Kentucky WIB certification

Recertification

KENTUCKY WORK READY COMMUNITY IN PROGRESS

- Certification is good for three years
- Counties must submit a recertification update form after at the two year mark

WORK READY COMMUNITY

- Certification is good for two years at which time counties must submit for recertification

Statewide Performance*

Kentucky Work Ready Communities

18

Kentucky Work Ready Communities in Progress

40

Letters of Intent

31

As of 09/09/15

Work Ready Certified Counties

Boone
Campbell
Daviess
Hardin
Hopkins
Madison
Oldham
Rowan
Warren

Boyle
Clark
Fleming
Henderson
Kenton
Nelson
Pulaski
Shelby
Woodford

Work Ready in Progress Counties

Abert
Ballard
Boyd
Carroll
Floyd
Gallatin
Greenup
Hancock
Henry
Knox
Lawrence
Macon
Martin
McCracken
Monroe
Muhlenberg
Perry
Taylor
Trigg
Union

Allen
Barren
Bartlett
Christian
Franklin
Grant
Grayson
Hart
Hickman
Johnson
Logan
Marshall
Mason
McLean
Montgomery
Ohio
Russell
Todd
Trimble
Webster

