

Anonymous Donation of $25,000 to Support Dayton Independent Schools

In December, an individual that requested to remain anonymous, contacted the school district to make a donation of $25,000. As you can imagine, our district staff was deeply moved and inspired by this generous gift.

At this point the use of these funds has not been determined. We simply want to share this great news and highlight the wonderful giving spirit that is alive and well in the community of Dayton.

Two of my favorite quotes from former Dayton High School and UCLA basketball coaching legend come to mind.

“The true test of a man’s character is what he does when no one is watching.” –John Wooden

“You can’t live a perfect day until you do something for someone who will never be able to repay you.” –John Wooden

Respectfully submitted,

Jay Brewer
