III.A. Strategic Planning Summit-Community Meeting

Discussion:

The school district hosted our Third Annual Spring Summit to celebrate another year for making kids dreams come true. There were over 200 guests in attendance from staff to parents to community members to special guests. The evening began with a buffet dinner and the dream bus debut. Superintendent Schlosser facilitated the meeting with table talks, video, student presentations, community input, and individual pledges. She announced that chrome books would be available for each MCHS student next school year.
