

GOVERNOR'S COMMONWEALTH INSTITUTE FOR PARENT LEADERSHIP
Northern KY

2016 APPLICATION

Deadline: April 30, 2016

Who can apply?

All parents, caregivers, mentors and other caring adults who support K-12 public school students in the following counties: Boone, Bracken, Campbell, Gallatin, Grant, Kenton, and Pendleton.

Participants commit to:

- Attend all five days of training held on August 26-27, September 30 - October 1, and October 29, 2016.
- Lead a project in a school or community that involves other families and improves student outcomes
- Maintain an ongoing connection with the Prichard Committee for Academic Excellence

In return, participants receive:

- Information about Kentucky's public education and accountability system and resources available to help students succeed
- Understanding of assessment data at the school, district, and state levels and opportunity gaps
- Information on how to use the data to participate in efforts to improve student outcomes
- Knowledge of how to partner with school administrators, teachers, and other parents to improve student outcomes
- Skills to enhance their ability to lead and communicate with a diverse group of people
- Connections to an existing network of parents and community leaders committed to public education
- Meals and materials provided at no cost.

To apply:

- Apply online at www.gcipl.org by clicking on "GCIPL Application" on the left hand of the screen. You can also mail your application and reference time stamped by May 20, 2016.
- Governor's Commonwealth Institute for Parent Leadership
271 W Short St, Suite 202
Lexington, KY 40507
- You will be invited to attend an orientation session where you can ask questions and learn more about the institute. After the orientation, we review all applications and select up to 30 applicants who are invited to participate.

Locations and Dates: Training will take place in northern Kentucky on August 26-27, Sept. 30 – Oct. 1, and October 29. Location is yet to be determined.
