2 Registration Now Open for the 2016 Persistence to Graduation Summit

KDE has provided an opportunity for schools, districts and communities across the state to support more students in earning high school diplomas. In recognition of the fact that additional education options may be needed to reengage former dropouts and prevent students from leaving school without diplomas, KDE is hosting the 2016 Persistence to Graduation Summit in Lexington on June 15-16. All sessions will feature Kentucky schools and strategies that have been successful in (re)engaging students in paths to graduation. Sessions will be highly interactive and will connect to one or more of the following strands: Student Reengagement and Transition Strategies, Alternative Programming, Community Partnerships, and School Climate and Culture. Registration information is available at the following link: Persistence to Graduation Summit 2016

7 Certified Evaluation Training

August 2-3 8:30 – 3:30

Gateway Community College, Florence

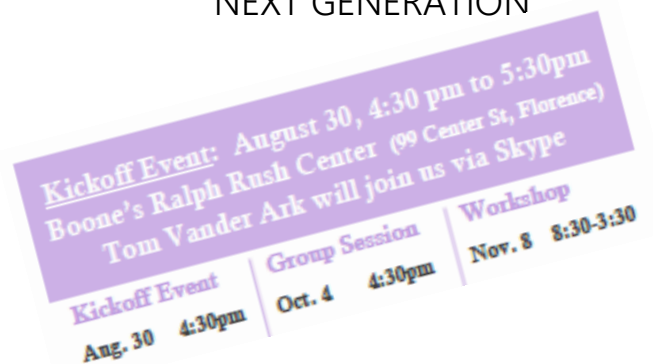

Kentucky Association of School Administrators and The Center for Education Leadership is the KDE approved provider for Certified Evaluation Training. KASA will be conducting initial evaluator training in multiple locations and dates during the 2016-2017 school year. The two-day training and testing is required according to KRS 156.557 and 704 KAR 3:370 for all new evaluators of certified personnel below the level of superintendent before completing the summative process.

The Initial Evaluator Training involves a variety of instructional strategies that will engage participants in the proper techniques for effectively evaluating certified school employees. It is designed to initially approve instructional leaders as evaluators of certified staff. Upon completion of this two-day training, participants will receive twelve (12) hours of Effective Instructional Leadership Credit (EILA).

(Evaluators of certified teachers and other professionals must also complete an additional training, currently provided by Frontline Technologies (formerly Teachscape) to be qualified to conduct classroom evaluations.

NEXT GENERATION

9 New Teacher Academy:

The Professional Learning Consortium has designed a “New to Teaching PLC” to create meaningful and unique support for our newest teachers. This will be a powerful opportunity to unite our resources, knowledge and ideas to support our newest teachers together. The Academy will provide individual district time but also a region-wide view and support so that we are building capacity together.

September 12, 4:00-6:00, Location TBD, Registration begins on July 15
