CONFERENCE IS FREE!

When Liz Forkin Bohannon graduated from high school, the world was her proverbial oyster. She studied journalism at university then took a job with a multinational communications firm. But something jarred. In one of those spontaneous moments that can turn a life around, Liz booked a flight to Uganda to launch a new career. Liz will share her story of how she combined her passion for women and girls, a journalism degree and a pair of strappy sandals to create a not-just-for-profit venture that is enabling girls in Uganda to go to college and inspiring women everywhere to Be Brave.

CONFERENCE IS FREE!

Julia Garcia is the Founder and President of The TRU Movement, a non-profit organization infusing story telling and performance art to break down walls, stereotypes, and labels that keep young people from being The Real U. Her powerful presentations, interactive workshops and intense team building activities, empowers students from all walks of life to believe in their TRU potential, believe in each other, and most importantly, to believe in themselves. Through her powerful use of story telling, slam poetry, and audience interaction she is truly one of the most unique speakers of our time.
