

Inspire, Engage, and Grow Employee of the Month

We want to congratulate Mrs. Shena Hagaman as she is our Inspire, Engage, and Grow employee of the month. She does an incredible job of Inspiring, Engaging, and Growing each Student that enters her classroom. Mrs. Shena Hagaman holds all students to high expectations and has a true passion for making connections and developing strong relationships with students. We are incredibly proud to have Mrs. Hagaman teaching our kids.

One staff member's nomination stated, "Mrs. Hagaman doesn't simply invite kids or encourage kids to be engaged in her classroom, she ensures every single student is engaged while in her classroom. She creates a classroom climate that is extremely inviting and welcoming to our students. Every student feels safe and challenged as a part of her class. When you enter her room, kids are hanging on her every word and are willing to do anything that is asked of them. Shena understands the value of building positive relationships with her students. More importantly, she has very high expectations and requires that the students meet those expectations!"

Other nominations included:

"She is awesome, nice and fun to be around. Therefore, she is the best teacher ever"

"Shena' is respectful toward her students and in return she is able to gain their respect. Mutual respect makes for a strong foundation when working with students at any age. Being engaged in mutual respect will allow our students to grow in many facets of their lives."

Every single day Shena inspires and engages our students. Her constant attention to how her students are performing directly results in her students constantly growing!

Congratulations Mrs. Hagaman and thanks for Inspiring, Engaging, and Growing our Students!
