

Jefferson County Public Schools
Superintendent's Summit:
Integrating Behavior Support Systems

April 11, 2017

Agenda

THEME: Using Behavior Frameworks (Restorative Practices, Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports, and Danielson Framework) to Support Instruction and Classroom Management

- I. Global Perspective and Commitment by the District - Dr. Donna Hargens, Superintendent, Jefferson County Public Schools (JCPS)
- II. Overview of the Work, Framing, and Alignment to District Vision: Vision 2020 - Dr. Katy Zeitz, Assistant Superintendent, Area 5, JCPS
- III. Introduction of Panel - Dr. Naomi Brahim, Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports/Restorative Practices Coordinator, Area 5, JCPS
  - a. Keith Hickman, Director of Continuing Education, International Institute of Restorative Practices
  - b. Dr. Jessica Swain-Bradway, Research and Evaluation Director, Midwest PBIS Network
  - c. Dr. Terry Scott, Director, Center for Instructional and Behavioral Research in Schools, College of Education and Human Development, University of Louisville
- IV. Opening Circle - Dr. Katy Zeitz, JCPS
- V. Define Restorative, Implementation Science, Scaling Up, Update on JCPS - Keith Hickman, IIRP
- VI. Integration of PBIS, RP, and Danielson Framework - Dr. Jessica Swain-Bradway, Midwest PBIS Network
- VII. Importance of Instruction and Classroom Management - Dr. Terry Scott, University of Louisville
- VIII. Components of the Social Discipline Window and the Organizational Change Window - Keith Hickman, IIRP
- IX. Closing Activity and Circle - Dr. Naomi Brahim, JCPS

