Family First

Family First is currently working with the Grand Lakes Clinic to offer low cost physicals to our students and community. We are also in the process of developing a professional parent needs assessment in collaboration with Four Rivers Behavior Health to help identify the needs that will drive the activities in our upcoming Continuation Program Plan. We anticipate that the assessment will be available in time to be included in the registration packets, and we appreciate any assistance you might be able to offer in promoting their return.

Hopefully, you have all had an opportunity to see the Community Event Catalogue. As usual, parents were eager to get this resource. Among many other activities it include information about the Venture River Days in July. We are also receiving calls about community partners wanting to reserve a table at the Back-To-School Fair on July 31st at LCHS. Once again we are thankful for your service and financial support for the food at this event.

Family First has also received a Community Bornlearning Grant to expand and continue our parenting workshops targeting K-readiness. You can expect to hear more details and exciting news about this in the future. Our first workshop will be hosted at each elementary school on August 3rd, in connection with their Back-To-School Nights.

South Livingston

Students enjoyed many end-of-the-year activities such as Science/Field Day on May 12th. Activities had to move indoors because of rain, but it didn't dampen the fun and enjoyment of the students. Students participated in many traditional field day events, but also enjoyed some scientific explorations during the day.

The Smithland, Gilbertsville, and Ledbetter Masonic Lodges donated 22 bicycles and helmets to be given away to students with perfect attendance for the school year. There were thirteen students with perfect attendance, and the remaining nine bicycles were given away by drawing names from the students who had missed only one day of school. The assembly on May 16th was filled with excitement. We appreciate our community for being so active in supporting attendance in our schools.

Kindergarten and 5th grade graduations were held on May 17th as well as award programs for grades 1-4. Many family members attended the ceremonies on that exciting day.

Classified and certified staff will be participating in a variety of professional learning sessions during the summer.

The SLES Preschool/Head Start playground received a wonderful improvement since the end of school. The wood chips have been removed and a one-piece rubber surface has been applied to that area. It will improve safety of those students and looks very nice as well.

The staff of SLES congratulates Mr. Murphy on his new position in the district. We know he will do very well as the new Student Supervisor of Open Campus and the Activities/Athletic Director for the District. We will miss him at SLES, but we wish him every success in his new role.
