

NKCES ENERGY STAR Info

Governor's Certificates recognizing ENERGY STAR Schools (first year labeled)

- Earning the ENERGY STAR means your school is using 35% less energy, and generate 35% less greenhouse gas emissions, that similar schools across the nation.
- It requires your school's energy use to be verified by a professional engineer.
- On behalf of Governor Matt Bevin, Energy Secretary Charles Snavelly and KSBA congratulations on this achievement.
 - Beechwood Independent Schools
 - Boone County Schools:
 - Camp Ernst Middle School
 - Erpenbeck Elementary
 - Gray Middle School
 - R.A. Jones Middle School

GENERAL Facts:

- ENERGY STAR Buildings use 35% less energy and generate 35% less greenhouse emissions than similar buildings across the nation
- 6 ENERGY STAR Schools in Kentucky in 2006
- 12 ENERGY STAR Schools in Kentucky in 2008
- 395 ENERGY STAR Schools in Kentucky as of 8/23/17
 - 26 ENERGY STAR Schools are represented at NKCES, in the following districts:

Beechwood Independent Schools	1
Bellevue Board of Education	1
Boone County School District	12
Bracken County Board of Education	1
Campbell County Schools	3
Pendleton County Schools	4
Southgate Independent Schools	1
Walton Verona Schools	2
Williamstown Independent Schools	1