B. Textbook Statement of Accountability: Council reviewed the Textbook Statement of Accountability prepared by Assistant Principal, Tessa Jagers. ORDER 17-25 – Natalie Crimmins made a motion to accept the prepared documents. Tiffany Spratt seconded the motion. Motion passed unanimously.

C. KDE Continuous Improvement Diagnostic: Council reviewed the KDE Continuous Improvement Diagnostic document prepared by Assistant Principal, Chastity Yates. The strengths identified were: the relationships between teachers and students, and communication between teachers and parents. The growth areas identified were: communication to parents about standards, procedures, and curriculum. Discussion included workshops for parents to receive information about high school from an academics standpoint. ORDER 17-26 – Katherine Graybeal made a motion for the KDE Continuous Improvement Diagnostic to be accepted. Tara Graziano seconded the motion. Motion passed unanimously.

D. State Accountability Changes: Tim Isaacs gave information about the new changes such as schools will be given a numerical rating, but not an overall rating – there will not be a growth score attached to the school. The state will still field test everything but US History. Discussion also included the rule for final exams. The SBDM council recommends Dan Corley's committee to look at final exam policy and composition.
