Kim Mott

I am writing about Kim Mott, the assistant principal at Caywood Elementary. I am sorry this is a little late but I want to share what goes on behind the scenes that Central Office staff and the staff at Caywood is not aware of.

On Friday December 15, a morning kindergartner that attends Caywood Elementary left school with another student's coat. Ms. Mott attempted to contact the family of the kindergartner to retrieve the coat. She was unsuccessful in reaching the family and asked if I would do a home visit. After completing the home visit, I too was unsuccessful in contacting a family member. I stopped by the same residence a second time on my way home and upon talking to a family member; I learned that Ms. Mott was on the phone with someone else inside the home.

Ms. Mott was able to utilize the Family Resource Center to make sure the student that lost his coat went home with one. Ms. Mott also thought it was important enough not to wait until Monday to reach the family of the student that took the wrong coat home. She stayed after hours on a Friday, the same afternoon as the staff Christmas gathering probably missing the start of the event, attempting to locate the student's coat. This individual event, as simple as it may sound shows Ms. Mott's dedication and commitment to the students and her professional representation of Caywood Elementary and the Kenton County School District. Just a WOW shout out for something that goes on behind the scenes.
