C3 Outstanding Educators Award

Sponsored by Northern Kentucky
University, Xavier University, University of Cincinnati and Mount St. Joseph University

Mr. Dwayne Humphrey

The students in Mr. Humphrey's class receive a world-class education at Turkey Foot Middle School. Mr. Humphrey is a life-long learner. He is always participating with new learning and sees the benefit for this learning as he applies it to his classroom. If an idea is discussed, Mr. Humphrey is researching and finding out how we could utilize it in our school – not just his classroom. He is committed to the professional growth of all in our school. Exceptional knowledge of content, data driven student success, well respected among colleagues in the district and throughout the community...for all of these reasons and more, Mr. Dwayne Humphrey is the winner of the C3 Outstanding Educators in the Northern Kentucky/Greater Cincinnati region. Mr. Humphrey will officially receive this award on February 13 at Xavier University.
