Background/Summary of Information

Spencer County High School and Hillview are seeking board approval to pursue the Sprint 1 Million Grant. Sprint's mission is to help 1 million high school students who do not have reliable Internet access at home reach their full potential by giving them devices and free high-speed Internet access. The grant would be spread over 4 years and 1200 devices will be requested for that time period. There is no requested match or partner. Thank you for considering this request.
