Lesson Plans

CC.3.RL.5 - Craft and Structure: Refer to parts of stories, dramas, and poems when writing or speaking about a text, using terms such as chapter, scene, and stanza; describe how each successive part builds on earlier sections.

CC.3.RL.9 - Integration of Knowledge and Ideas: Compare and contrast the themes, settings, and plots of stories written by the same author about the same or similar characters (e.g., in books from a series).

Objectives: Students will describe the play using using scenes and will compare and contrast the story elements from the book with the play. In addition ,students will use describe the main characters using character traits.

Procedure: Students have been listening to tall tale stories

Students will attend the performance of American Tales(John Henry, Pecos Bill etc).

After returning from the play, students will compare and contrast the story elements from the book with the story elements from the play using either a Venn Diagram or a T-Chart.

Students will draw a picture of their favorite character and then describe the character using both external and internal traits.

If time allows, students will watch snippets of the movie to see how their mental image of the characters compares with the play and the book.

Assessment: Students will be assessed on the above activities using a checklist. In addition, students will complete a short answer constructed response question(s).
