Mr. Dearborn spent 24 of his 38 years in the 10th Region as an administrator working with athletics. He has always been a strong advocate for gender equity, making changes at Harrison County HS to bring girls' athletics into line with the boys'. In 1998, he volunteered Harrison County HS to be the site of the first Title IX Audit. His changes in district policy were commended by the committee and other schools replicated the procedures in their own districts.

The longtime girls' basketball head coach at Hazard HS, Fannin accumulated over 500 wins during his career and guided the Lady Bulldogs to the KHSAA Girls' Sweet 16 state championship in 1997. Hazard captured three-straight 14th Region Championships from 1995-97. Fannin's coaching accolades included a 14th Region and 54th District Coach of the Year award. He received the 14th Region's Most Outstanding Coaching Career award and was inducted into the KABC Court of Honor in 2009. Fannin's impact extended past girls' basketball, as he coached boys' basketball and fast pitch softball at Hazard as well, winning a 14th Region title in both sports. During his playing career, Fannin broke numerous records at Carr Creek HS during the 1960's before continuing his education at Cumberland College, where he set the record for Free Throw percentage.

Mr. Hampton has officiated 6 BS16 Tournaments, including the famous championship game in which Paul Andrews made the half court shot to win the Sweet Sixteen for Laurel County. He has worked numerous district and regional tournaments and multiple Kentucky-Indiana All-Star Games. He has been a leader in high school basketball officiating, both on and off the court. He has served in numerous leadership positions in the Bluegrass Basketball Association which represented officials from the 10th and 11th regions. He was respected by the coaches that he worked for and also by his peers due to his consummate professionalism. Mr. Hampton took great pride in being a high school referee and was instrumental in the development of many young officials that came behind him.
