RE: Board Agenda Item – Eastside Middle School – Agriculture Teacher Stipend / FFA

Eastside Middle School strives to offer unique learning opportunities for our students. To compliment the agriculture pathway at Bullitt East High School, we have a desire to pursue the addition of a sustainable agriculture program. The recent additions of a greenhouse and agriculture club make this in an opportune time to pursue the addition of a certified agriculture teacher and Future Farmers of America (FFA) charter.

- In order to have an FFA charter, a school must employ a certified agriculture teacher. We currently have an exploratory/unified arts position available and we would use it to hire a suitable candidate. There is no need to fund an additional teaching position at Eastside.
- A stipend is recommended for any agriculture teaching position. The current stipend for a high school agriculture teacher is $1,455. The state recommends a similar stipend for middle school positions, but the amount is determined by the district.
- There are no required extended days for middle school agriculture positions. High school positions carry 53 extended days. While there are no requirements for middle school, the state highly recommends allocating no less than 5 extended days and as many as 53 for a middle school agriculture teacher. Extended days are purposeful for maintaining the operation of a greenhouse, county and state fairs, FFA events, etc. If approved, the number of days would be at the discretion of the Board.
- There is no cost to apply for, and receive an FFA charter. Eastside administration will be responsible for paperwork, assisting with the creation of a constitution and bylaws for the program, and creating a list of planned activities for the program.
- There are currently only 7 stand-alone middle school programs in the state. Eastside would be among the elite if an agriculture/FFA program were to be added.

Eastside Middle School asks that, at your discretion, you please consider approving a stipend and extended days for the addition of an agriculture program and FFA chapter. We believe to employ a quality candidate and to sustain a quality program, a stipend and extended days are necessary. The state recommends consideration of the same. This program will create a pipeline of involvement for students that would carry through their high school career and beyond. I have provided state level contact information on the following page. These contacts are readily available to answer any questions you might have about the process. Please also contact me with any questions or concerns, as I would be happy to share my vision for the program. On behalf of the students of Eastside, I sincerely appreciate your consideration.
