RE: AmeriCorps Kentucky College Coaches
Memorandum of Agreement between Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority,
Kentucky Campus Compact, and Bullitt County Public Schools (North Bullitt High School)

The partnership between Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority, Kentucky Campus Compact, and Bullitt County Public Schools has completed its third year. This Memorandum of Agreement between all three parties will begin on September 1, 2018 and conclude on June 30, 2019.

Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority (KHEAA) has partnered with surrounding parties, such as Northern Kentucky University, to write a grant to support disadvantaged students in the hopes to help motivate them to attend college. KHEAA helps conduct interviews with North Bullitt High School and evaluates the AmeriCorp Kentucky College Coaches. Kentucky College Coaches is an AmeriCorp initiative that will place college graduates in high schools to provide mentoring and hands-on advising to help students and families understand college readiness and the path to postsecondary education.

North Bullitt High School is the host for the AmeriCorp Kentucky College Coach. The coach will work with disadvantaged students who would not typically go to college or do not understand the process of how to get to college. The coach will mentor fifteen (15) students per grade level focusing on the importance of grades and how this can impact KEES money. The coach will also assist the students in the FASFA and scholarship applications. Throughout the school year, the coach will report to AmeriCorp Kentucky College updating on the progress of these students.

Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority will cover the expense for the coach's time and effort.

Please approve the Memorandum of Agreement between KHEAA, Kentucky Campus Compact and Bullitt County Public Schools, for September 1, 2018 through June 30, 2019.
