WOODFORD COUNTY
BOARD OF EDUCATION

I am the new Director of the Jack Jouett House, and again this year we are sponsoring Frontier Day at the Jack Jouett House for the fourth graders of Woodford county schools. Huntertown and Northside will attend on Thursday, October 4, and Southside and Simmons on Friday, October 5.

The Woodford County Heritage Committee (the non-profit arm of the Jack Jouett House Historic Site) has voted to donate funds to subsidize the cost of bus transportation to the event. The amount of the donation will be $125 for Huntertown, $125 for Simmons, $125 for Southside, and $175 for Northside.

It is our understanding that this donation needs to be approved by the Woodford County School Board before the check can be accepted. We would appreciate it if this could be addressed at your next regular meeting. We will forward the check as soon as you notify us of the approval.

Please contact me if you have any questions about the event. We are looking forward to spending a wonderful day learning about frontier Kentucky with the fourth graders of Woodford County schools. You may contact me at the Jack Jouett House at 859-873-7902 or at info@jouetthouse.org.

Thank you very much.

Visit the Home of the "Paul Revere of the South". On the night of June 3-4, 1781, Captain John "Jack" Jouett, Jr. rode 40 miles through the backwoods of Virginia to warn Governor Thomas Jefferson and the Virginia legislature of the approach of 250 British troops.
