KSBA is seeking nominees to fill four director-at-large seats on their board of directors (for a three-year term) and the President-elect seat (for a two-year term). Ratification of the committee's selections will take place during the KSBA annual conference business session Saturday, Feb. 23, 2019 in Louisville.

Director-at-large nomination process

The four director-at-large seats are occupied by:

- James See, Lawrence County, who is completing his eligibility.

In keeping with the association's bylaws,

- any Kentucky school board member may place his or her name before the committee by completing and submitting the enclosed form by Nov. 12. - No local board member would be eligible for election to the Board of Directors for a term simultaneous with that of another member of the same local board already serving on the KSBA board.

(Over)

- A candidate for the office of director-at-large must be eligible to serve in that post at the time the candidate places her or his name in nomination.
