Lesson Plans

Washington DC is the heart of our country's national government. Strand one of the Social Studies core content is focused on government. Students will visit the United States Capitol and experience first-hand the democratic processes of our nation. Students will experience strand five, historical perspective, when they visit memorials and monuments, including the new Martin Luther King, Jr., the Lincoln, Jefferson, and Washington Monuments, and the Vietnam, Korean, and World War II memorials. Students will gain a deeper appreciation for our nation's past at Arlington National Cemetery and Mount Vernon. Other locations students will visit include the Supreme Court, Library of Congress, Smithsonian American History Museum, Ford's Theatre and the Peterson House, and the National Holocaust Museum.
