Lesson Plans

Students will be immersed in the amazing geological landforms, culture, and history of both New Zealand and Australia. They will visit: a Geothermal Park, a Maori Village, and the Sydney Tower, to name a few. They will cruise the Sydney Harbor and the Great Barrier Reef. They will also snorkel along the Great Barrier Reef.

Students will learn to navigate foreign environments, and become smarter, more competent individuals.

Students will build confidence as they figure out how to use public transit in a foreign country, ask for simple things in a grocery store, or order in a restaurant. They will build confidence and an ability to adapt in foreign situations.

Students will develop cultural sensitivity which can help them better understand international issues and conflicts, or even relate to foreign cultural norms.

Students will use the confidence and cultural sensitivity that traveling gives them, to develop and better adapt to globalization.
