Summer Learning Initiative

LAUNCHING DECEMBER 2018

2 in 4

students are below grade level in reading and math
Based on MAP scores, Fall 2018

Community Partners

JCPS provides reading and math teachers for daily academic support in existing community led summer programs at no cost to our partner groups

JCPS Summer Learning Initiative Four weeks of high powered learning for students!

1,500
Targeted number of students in year one

Four weeks of high powered learning from July 8th through August 2nd

School Teams

School based teams design high powered learning experiences for students most in need of reading and math support.

$1 Million
To support the Summer Learning Initiative

District Support

District with provide reading and math teachers , as well as funding to help support high powered learning experiences for students most in need of academic support

■ Partners ■ Schools ■ District
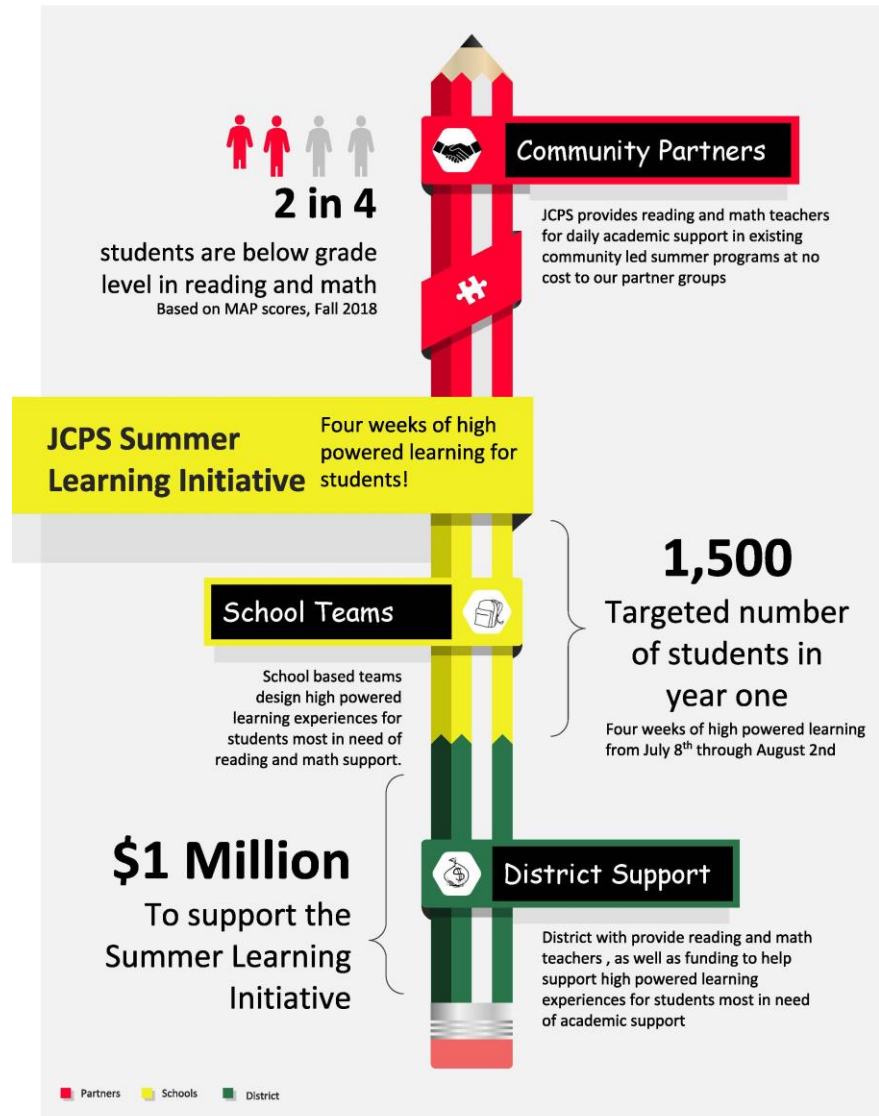

JCPS Summer Learning Initiative, 2019

Powerful Learning Experiences for Students

- District Sponsored Programming
  - Targeting those students needing support in reading and math
  - Students entering grades 3-6 in 2019-2020
  - Powerful learning experiences designed and delivered by teachers
    - Focus on literacy and numeracy
    - Interactive and exploratory in nature
  - Inviting 5,000 students to participate
  - Web-based RFP will go live mid-December 2018
    - Technical Assistance Workshops will be conducted in January 2019 to support teachers
    - RFPs are due by February 15, 2019
    - Notifications will be sent by March 1, 2019

Powerful Learning Experiences for Students

- Community Sponsored Programming
  - Students already attending community partner summer programming
  - Powerful learning experiences designed and delivered by teachers
    - Focus on literacy and numeracy
    - Interactive and exploratory in nature
  - Targeting those students needing support in reading and math
    - Community partner groups will have the services of a math and reading teacher each day
    - Minimum commitment of 75 minutes of instruction in each subject area each day
    - No cost to the community partner groups to participate in the programming
  - Web-based application goes live mid-December 2018
    - Applications due January 31, 2019
    - Notifications made March 1, 2019

JCPS Summer Learning Initiative, 2019

Multi-Department Effort

- Working from 30/60/90 Day Planning Format

- Planning Team with work teams to address plans

- Launching RFP for programming mid-December