Marie Roberts-Caney Elementary School Committees Policy

KRS 160.345(2)(c)2

Purpose:

The Committee Policy of Marie Roberts-Caney Elementary School ensures equitable participation in the decision making process for teachers, parents, and school community as a whole.

Procedures:

Marie Roberts-Caney Elementary School shall have eight standing committees:

ABRI Committee: The ABRI Committee shall evaluate behavior and MTSS (Multi-Tier Support System) data as a whole to determine the best means of strengthening students academically and behaviorally and then share the information with the rest of the school staff.

Jason Fugate, Kristal Combs, Heather Hall, Marlene Hamilton, Tammy Keene, and Lisa Miller

Leadership Committee: The Leadership Committee will come together to discuss issues that arise in the school and to find ways to improve. The leadership committee will also evaluate the 30/60/90 day plan and communicate findings with the rest of the school staff.

Jason Fugate, Kristal Combs, Heather Hall, Marlene Hamilton, Tammy Keene, and Lisa Miller

Literacy Committee: The Literacy Committee will evaluate the Striving Readers Action Plans and continue to find ways for improvement.

Kristal Combs, Amy Gabbard, Marlene Hamilton, Tammy Keene, and Faith Noble

Writing Committee: The Writing Committee will update ways to improve writing for the entire school.

Deana Spencer, Christy Taulbee, Fannie Hall, Heather Hall, Chassadi Strong, and Henry Turner

AR/Reading A to Z/#MRCREAD20/Attendance Committee: The AR/Reading A to Z/#MRCREAD20/Attendance Committee will evaluate reading as a whole within the school. The committee will plan celebrations for the students who meet goals set for them and for themselves.

Mary Kay Caudill, Margaret Henson, Jackie O'Neill, Deana Spencer, Chassadi Strong, Patrick Wooton, and Vanessa Baker

Academic Committee (K-PREP, Pep Rally, Recognition, etc.): The Academic Committee shall plan teacher and student activities and celebrations.

Kristal Combs, Alonzo Fugate, Lisa Fugate, Megan Hudson, Lisa Miller, Christy Taulbee, and Henry Turner

Restraint Committee: The Restraint Committee are the individuals that have completed the required restraint training and can assist if a student becomes agitated to the point that they are a safety risk to themselves or others.

Faith Noble, Henry Turner, and Patrick Wooton

Community Involvement/Communication (Social Media, School Presentations, etc.): The Community Involvement/Communication Committee will investigate new ways to keep the community involved in MRC's decision making and school culture.

Megan Hudson, Kristal Combs, Deana Spencer, Jackie O'Neill, Alonzo Fugate, Scott Hollan, and Margaret Henson

Each standing committee shall make every effort to involve community and parental participation.

During May, the school council will appoint committee members, ensuring reasonable representation for all groups. The school council may need to assign some persons to committees that are not their first choice to give each committee adequate and balanced membership. The school council shall also designate a committee member to convene the first committee meeting.

The school council secretary shall notify all committee members of their appointment.

Evaluation:

Annually, the school council shall review the standing committees, the committee chairpersons and work provided to the school council from each committee. Any revisions to the committee policy based on this information will be completed by the school council
