Floyd County Board of Education Issue Paper

Consent Agenda Item (Action Item):

A request to allow Betsy Layne Elementary 8th Grade to travel out of state to Cedar Point in Sandusky, Ohio, using district transportation.

Applicable Statue(s), Regulation(s), Board Policy/Procedure(s), and/or Consolidated Plan Activity:

BOE Policy 09.36

Board Policy must approve out of state travel.

Fiscal/Budgetary Impact:

The school will cover the expenses through fundraising activities and donations. Transportation will be paid for by district funds.

History/Background:

- Cedar Point features several musical performances, magic shows, science shows, comedy, and firework shows.
- Program Review 3D – Practical Living and Vocational Studies are integrated into the school curriculum for all students and provide experiences that are designed to promote learning of Ky. Core Academic Standards within the Practical Living and Vocational Studies and other content areas.

Staff Recommendation and Rationale:

Approve the Betsy Layne 8th Grade Students' out-of-state trip to Cedar Point in Sandusky, Ohio. This trip will occur after the official school year has ended, currently planned for June 4-5, 2019. If conditions constitute a change of the last day of school, then the next available date after school dismissal.
