Re: Request for Letters of Interest for Spencer County Early Learning Center Renovation & Addition

Dear Mr. Adams:

Moody Nolan, Inc., appreciates the opportunity to submit our qualifications for consideration to join your team in providing design and construction services for the renovations and additions to the Spencer Early Learning Center Renovation and Addition. What lies ahead is critically important to the Spencer County Public Schools for its academic building and keeping the students first.

Moody Nolan offers a committed team of experienced professionals in educational design, planning, and research, providing continuous, creative, and well-managed service. With our broad range of talent and planning expertise, we will provide the Board, District, community, and future learners with the planning and design leadership required to achieve the unique and individualized results your District deserves.

As architects, our role is to facilitate the District and its stakeholders in designing quality education environments through our trend setting research, expertise, and experience in all elements of K-12 program planning, design and construction.

What sets us apart?

- National expertise with a local commitment to deliver
- Creation of innovative and personalized learning environments for future learners
- Disciplined creativity resulting in design excellence

Thank you for your consideration, and please feel free to contact us with any questions.

Sincerely,

Moody Nolan, Inc.
