Request to purchase the AlertNow Emergency Notification System. AlertNow empowers school's with the ability to bridge the communication gap between school districts and the parent community. AlertNow is a hosted service capable of sending tens of thousands of pre-recorded voice messages, emails and/or text messages within minutes. The product does not require the purchase of any additional hardware, software or additional phone lines by the school district and can be accessed from any internet ready pc and or phone device. The cost for this service for the entire district is $2.50 per student/$2204.00 annually for three years.
